News & Notes May 2009

The Seminary at Sewanee presented seven awards at an end of year event—Allan McCaslin received two of the seven. He received the Christian Education Prize for creativity and excellence in biblical studies and the Shettle Prize for Excellence in Liturgical Reading.

St. Mark's has received a gracious note of thanks from the Vice President of the Seminary of the Southwest, Austin, TX. As you may remember, a member of their faculty recently preached at St. Mark's and made a compelling case for continued support of theological education. St. Mark's responded with our usual generosity, presenting a gift of nearly $850.

Sunday, May 31 An Afternoon for the Future

With glorious Easter voices still echoing, more exciting things are coming for St. Marks!

On May 31, St. Marks will begin some of our most important work. We are asking every member of the St. Mark's community to participate in An Afternoon For the Future.

This is an afternoon workshop designed to begin the process of shaping our vision. We will explore questions like, "What is God calling us to be? Who are we as a parish? What are our ministries and why? How do our facilities support/hinder our mission? What are our priorities?"

This is no small task, and your church family needs this commitment from you. We promise it will be interesting and engaging. Members of all ages (including teens) are encouraged to participate. Childcare and games will be provided for families with small children.

Following the 10:30 service, we will have a quick, delicious lunch and together, we will begin to focus our new direction.

Lunch is FREE to all participants, but we do need you to please call the office today (225.4203) and reserve your place at An Afternoon for the Future.

Rector's Reflections

The Great Fifty Days

Christ's resurrection from the dead sent Mary, Peter and the disciples scurrying in different directions--not sure what to do next. Some ran from the empty tomb afraid, according to Mark. Others, in John's gospel, were behind locked doors for fear of Jesus' opponents. In Acts some began to proclaim the gospel boldly, to heal people and to help the poor. Responses to the Good News varied widely.

We also react in different ways to the good news of Christ's resurrection. Sometimes we're afraid, other times it may be business as usual, and at other times we experience the transforming power of Christ.

The Great Fifty Days of Easter, Easter to Pentecost, is a time for us to explore what the resurrection of Christ means for us and for our world. And it's a time to invite the risen Christ to transform our lives. This year at St. Mark's, through the resources of our prayer book, hymnal and lectionary, we will do that by hearing stories from the Book of Acts about how the early Christians responded to resurrection and experienced transformation. We will hear the letter of 1st John, an extended meditation on Christ's transforming love for us and his commandment to love others. In the gospels, we will learn what it means to be in relationship with Christ and hear about several resurrection appearances. We will hear that Christ is our companion on our journey in the Road to Emmaus story, for example. We will also learn that he is our Good Shepherd, the True Vine and our Beloved Friend. Craig and the choir, through Easter hymns and music, will also teach and empower us to live the Easter life.

Other things that you will notice include the omission of the confession. Instead of a general confession, we will give thanks for our redemption, thus acknowledging our sinfulness, through the Eucharist just as the early church did for 1500 years. You may also stand during the Eucharistic prayer as way of acknowledging that Christ has made us worthy to stand before Him. And in many other ways—colors, flowers, service music, special blessings—we will celebrate the gift of resurrection and experience the transforming power of the risen Christ. Through all of these things, we will remember that we are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song!

Bp. Maze Speaks @ Women's Event

Women's Institute, a weekend of relaxation, spiritual refreshment and reflection, is at Camp Mitchell June 5-7. The weekend begins with an optional Quiet Day on Friday, from 10-3, led by The Rev. Anne Carriere, a retired priest who resides in Mountain Home. The keynote speaker for the weekend event is Bishop Larry Maze. Registration forms are available in the parish office as well as on the web: http://arkansasecw.org/wp-content/uploads/2009/03/2009_womens_institute_registration_form.pdf

Carey's Corner

“Train up a child in the way that they should go, and when they are old they will not depart from it.”
– Proverbs 22.6 (paraphrase)

It is a privilege each year for me to recite Psalm 22 after the stripping of the altar during the Maundy Thursday service. It is always a moving experience for me but this year it was especially so. As I came upon and read the following words I became acutely aware of the responsibility that is mine as a parent: “My soul shall live for him; my descendants shall serve him; they shall be known as the Lord’s forever.” Wow! First of all that I should live for God and then to train my child so that she will be able to grow up and serve God with her life. What a goal – what a task. I will need all the help I can get!

To help myself and other parents I will be offering a four week series entitled, “Raising Healthy Children: Under- standing the Eight Stages of Development.” The class is open to all parents and future parents and will offer a way to understand the various developmental stages that children pass through. If a child does not successfully negotiate these stages they can become “stuck” and as a result, will struggle in being able to grow into responsible and mature adults. The class will meet the first four Sundays in May at 9:15 a.m. in the Java Loft. We will have a wrap-up meeting for the school year on Sunday, May 31. Come for coffee and informal discussion about future studies and activities for parents.

Yours in Christ,
Carey+

A Word from the Warden

As I stood in the back of the church on Easter Sunday listening to Craig finish up the magnificent postlude on the organ, a choir member commented to me: “Jim, I know it is not about the numbers but it is sure wonderful to sing to a packed house!”

I replayed that thought over and over again in my mind and I finally came to the contrary thought, “maybe it is about the numbers.” Maybe it is about the Holy Spirit being alive and present at St. Mark’s such that others sense it and long to be part of it. Maybe it is about the number of visitors and new members that God is bringing to our faith community who want to be part of our worship and ministries. Maybe it is about the number of people old and young, new and not so new who are participating in our education and outreach and growing in Christ and helping others to do the same.

Maybe, just maybe, one of the outward and visible signs of the inward and spiritual Grace that we are being given by God is the growing number of people who want to be part of St. Mark’s and what God has given us to enjoy and share with the world. It is wonderful to sing to a packed house. Let’s us rejoice and continue!

The Most Glorious Easter of My Life

Mary Magdalene may have been the first to see the Risen Lord Jesus Christ some two thousand years ago, but He came to me this April 12, 2009, in resurrection truth unsurpassed by any other Easter Sunday in my life. The tomb was Mena, Arkansas. A horrifying tornado struck there Maundy Thursday night, killing and wreaking unimaginable destruction. The Risen Lord, however, has appeared in the people of this little town, especially in the tiny parish of Christ Episcopal Church... a virtual phoenix from the ashes.

I went to bed at 11:30 p.m. Holy Saturday night, exhausted by the emotions of the Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday services, the Great Triduum, the three days concluding with the Easter Sunday Festival Eucharist services. In addition, I had attended Morning Prayer on Thursday, been a lector for that evening, watched and prayed at the Altar of Repose early Good Friday morning, and been the lector for the LONG Genesis 1 passage at the Easter Vigil, for which I had practiced hard. Most of Saturday was spent preparing for my traditional Easter Sunday “Passover leg of lamb” dinner for the family and friends. I was spent. And I wasn't even one of those first disciples who had witnessed the horror of Jesus' last week on earth before He rose from the dead! No wonder they couldn't stay awake in the garden. No wonder they ultimately deserted and hid before the good news arrived from Mary Magdalene and the others. Mena had been in my prayers during Holy Week, but I wasn't preoccupied with it, because I was living out Holy Week's intensity in my own beloved church. Easter really had not arrived, as far as I was concerned.

Thomas, the oldest of my three sons and a budding photojournalist who has a passion for jumping into his pickup truck with a chain saw and a camera to help out at any disaster site, had a different vision for a sacred Easter observance. "Come on, you Christians! Love your neighbors as yourselves this Easter!" he chided in an email to friends and me. "Go volunteer in Mena on Easter!" I was ambivalent. And when I'm already fatigued, I'm even more ambivalent. I LOVE the Festival Easter Eucharist at St. Mark's, Little Rock...The Holy Communion, familiar Scripture readings, glorious music, the "smells and bells". It is a real spiritual high, and rightly so. I didn't want to miss any of it. But Thomas' words were on my mind as I fell into bed late Saturday night.

At 3:00 a.m. Easter morning, I awoke. "Good day for a resurrection," I thought to myself. "Should I go, Lord?" "Go," He said. So I got up and laid out my Sunday clothes to celebrate Easter with the good people of Christ Episcopal Church, Mena...and packed my work clothes to help two of my sons and the work crew of twelve they had mustered to caravan down to the stricken town. I figured I would meet up with their "relief crew" after church. My energy was mounting as daylight approached. §§

American Guild of Organists Meeting at St. Mark's

Friday, May 15, the Central Arkansas Chapter of the American Guild of Organists will meet at St. Mark's. Craig Chotard will be the host for the evening event which begins with dinner in the Parish Hall and a business meeting.

The program will be an organ recital at 8 o'clock in the church presented by Dr. Laura Ellis. The recital is free and the parish is cordially invited to attend. Dr. Ellis is on the music faculty of the University of Florida, where she teaches organ, harpsichord, and carillon. Prior to her Florida appointment, she served on the music faculty of McMurry University and as organist at the Episcopal Church of the Heavenly Rest in Abilene, TX. She began her teaching career at the University of the Ozarks in Clarksville, AR.

Thanks for Food and a Warm Welcome

A hearty thanks to all those who provided food and hospitality for the Sunday night Inquirers' Classes and the Wednesday Night Lenten series! Sunday night's coordinator was Vicky Pierce, and the cooks and hosts were the Flower Guild, Choir, Amigos, Vestry, Men's Bible Study, 8 a.m. Ushers, and Mary Ann Gammill's Bible Study group.

Hosts for Wednesday Nights were the Choir (who also cooked), Vestry, St. Margaret's Guild, Mamas & Papas, and the Christ Care group; Crave Catering cooked for four of the Wednesday dinners. These meals provided much more than the delicious food served—that warm welcome, fellowship and learning represent the spirit that surrounds St. Mark's as we seek to do God's will.

Outreach Efforts to Support Mena Relief

There is great need after the devastating tornado in Mena. St. Mark's will be collecting monetary donations through a special offering over the next three weeks and we will have a special offering on May 3, discretionary fund Sunday, and designate it for disaster relief for Mena. Please use the designated envelopes and note "Mena" on your check. Our offering will be sent to Christ Church, Mena for distribution. You may also donate to the Arkansas Food Bank, which is collecting staple food items and canned goods with pop tops, baby food, diapers, paper goods and underwear. You may bring any of these items to St. Mark's and volunteers will transport them to the Arkansas Food Bank.

YOUTHAPALOOZA

Gulf Coast Youth Mission Trip in June

Since Katie will be at camp all summer, Jeannie McCabe has graciously invited us to go with her youth group from St. John's Fort Smith to Pass Christian, MS. You will be helping with Trinity Episcopal Church's VBS /Day Camp and continued clean-up in the community.

The trip runs from Sunday, June 21 to Friday, June 26. You may sign-up to go on the trip by contacting Katie (225.4203) or during any of our regular meeting times. She would like to know by Monday, June 1, if you plan to make this trip.

Youth Sunday May 10

We will celebrate all that the youth brings to the life of St. Mark's on Sunday, May 10. We will honor our seniors and say special prayers for all that help to spread God's love through our youth programming.

I will need help during the services. We will need ushers and readers. If you are interested in serving as a chalice bearer, you are welcome to do so as well. Please let Katie know if you would like to help!!!

EYC in May

Wed., May 6, 6-8pm...We will be going to that place where a kid can be a kid...and adults are driven crazy. Chuck E. Cheese. Bring $5.

Wed., May 13, 6-8pm...A mystery dinner will be had. I hope the food is not too bad.

Wed., May 20, 6-8pm...The EYC Banquet will be at the Buffalo Grill in WLR. The food and fun is free, but you must get there on your own without transportation from me.

Wed., May 27, 6-8pm...It will be our cookout at Murray Park. Meet out there for lots of food and fun. We will hang, eat and play; at 8 we'll be done.

End of Year Banquet

The end of the year banquet where we honor the seniors who will be graduating this year will be Wednesday May 20. We will watch a picture montage of the year, and eat a great dinner at Buffalo Grill in West Little Rock off Bowman.

There is no cost, but I would like to know how many to tell them to prepare for. Please let me know by Wed, May 13, if you can attend. WE WILL MEET AT THE RESTAURANT! If you need a ride, please let Katie know.

Counselor Ass't. Info

Serving as a staff member at Camp Mitchell has changed my life. I can't seem to stay away! In order to serve as a counselor assistant, you must have at least completed 9th grade. For more information about serving as a counselor assistant, please contact Katie McDonald kmcdonald@st-marks.com.

Watch over thy children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may thy peace which passeth understanding abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Road Trip Kids K-5

Our current Road Trip Kids Rotation will continue until May 10. We will be studying Jesus' Walk to Emmaus using science and scavenger hunt workshops. The last Rotation of the year will be about the Apostle Paul. Our last day of Sunday School will be Sunday, May 31. Please join us for our end of the year celebration.

Fostering Reflection and Discussion at the Intersection of Faith and Contemporary Life

May Adult Education

The Forum in May will concentrate on our stewardship of the earth and the connection made between loving God and loving creation.

May 3 Further Thoughts on Ministry: Bishop-in-Residence Larry Maze will challenge us with more thoughts on the tapestry created by our work with God in creation and reconciliation.

May 10 Caring For the Earth: Arkansas Earth Institute Shelly Greene will present an overview of Arkansas Earth Institute programs which religious groups are using to become better stewards.

May 17 Caring For the Earth: Sustainable Alternatives Julie Hendrix will give a broad look at several initiatives of Sustainable Alternatives, an educational outreach and community resource center for environmental and sustainable initiatives in central Arkansas.

May 24 Caring For the Earth: What is the Role of St. Mark's? We will share information and questions about how we are stewards of the earth at home, work, and on our church campus.

May 31 Caring For the Earth: Water Resources Rod Bryan, a local activist and organizer, will speak about grassroots and governmental actions regarding water resources.

Fr. Carey will offer a four week series entitled, "Raising Healthy Children: Understanding the Eight Stages of Development." The class, which will meet each Sunday in May except the 31st, will offer a way to understand the various developmental stages that children pass through. If a child does not successfully negotiate these stages they can become "stuck" and as a result, will struggle in being able to grow into responsible, mature adults. The class will meet in the Java Loft.
